

105个医保目录新药落地全国1万多家定点医药机构-新华网

---

Key Points

- 105 new negotiated drugs added to the medical insurance catalog in 2025 are now available in 11,129 designated medical institutions across the country.
- 19 commercial insurance innovative drugs have been equipped in 965 designated medical institutions nationwide.
- The National Medical Insurance Administration is ensuring the medication rights and interests of insured persons by monitoring and supervising the implementation of these new drugs.

Main Insight

The implementation of 105 new drugs in the medical insurance catalog across a vast network of designated medical institutions signifies progress in providing more treatment options and access to innovative medications for the insured population.

Healthcare professionals and insured individuals are encouraged to stay updated on the availability of these newly added drugs through the official website of the National Medical Insurance Administration and the National Medical Insurance Service Platform App. Additionally, it is essential to consult with healthcare providers about the suitability and benefits of these new medications for their specific health needs.